AROUND THE BANQUET TABLE

Greetings Madisonville Great Banquet Community!

Another Great Banquet season is upon us. Both the Men's #154 (October 25-28) and Women's #155 (November 8-11) teams have been selected with much prayer by the Lay Directors Matt Bell and Kayla Horn, and Head Spiritual Directors Scott Heltsley and Allison Goodman, respectively. It always amazes me how God works in His mysterious ways to place men and women on teams who know how to minister to the exact needs of the guests on each Weekend. In addition to the many guests that are sponsored by the Community each season on the Banquet, God has made a way for men at Teen Challenge in Dixon, KY to attend the Great Banquet Weekends. It was incredible to hear those men share last spring about how God touched their lives during the Weekend and gave them hope for a renewed life. And the men who were blessed to be servants on that team got to see firsthand how God changed the hearts of those men. God is just good and there is nothing we can do about it. Hallelujah!

I urge the Community to get involved during these two Weekends. There are many ways to serve on the Weekends that are just as important as being a team member: participate in bed setup/takedown, sign up to pray for the team and guest on the 72 hour prayer chart, attend the Candlelight ceremony, assist in cleaning up the church on Sunday afternoon, sign up to help the agape team members during the Weekend, bring salads and snacks (I have been told women love salads), serve a meal, write letters to the guests, etc. There are many ways you can stay involved in this Great Banquet experience and make this a special time for the guests.

The Great Banquet Prison/Jail Banquets are alive and well this fall with husband/wife teams going to Western Kentucky Correctional Complex #9 in Fredonia, KY on September 7 and 8. Kim Gilliam is the Lay Director. On October 18-21, a women's team will be ministering to the ladies at the Hopkins County Jail #16. Kelly Crowley will be the Lay Director and Kristy Heltsley will be the Head Spiritual Director. And finally, on November 15-18, a group of men will travel to Vienna, IL to serve men at the Vienna Correctional Center #43. Jeff Bell will be the Lay Director for that Weekend with Robert White heading up the Spiritual Directors. Let's keep these teams in your prayers as they prepare for their respective Weekends, and lift up those men and women that God chooses to attend. The Great Banquet Community can also play an important role during these Weekends by writing Sponsor Letters to the prisoners and making snacks for them and the team members. I would like to commend Barry McGaw, who is in charge of the Great Banquet Prison/Jail ministry, on his dedication, diligence, and desire to bring these incarcerated men and women to Christ.

As you saw this past spring, there were some old timers (previous Lay Directors) on both the men and women teams, and I believe both the team and guests benefited by their presence on the Weekends. I would also venture to say that these more experienced team members were truly blessed as well. So, if you fall into that category, don't be surprised if someone comes up to you and says SMILE! Would you like to be on a Great Banquet team? (kinda sounds like Candid Camera).

I am very humbled to be serving the Great Banquet Community in this position along with Great Banquet board members who truly love Christ and want to share Him with others. I want to thank everyone who continues to play a part in this ministry. God calls each one of us to a service that is far beyond anything we could ever imagine. He created you for a life of good deeds, which He has already prepared for you to do (Ephesians 2:10). Remember, whenever you serve others in any way, you are actually serving God. Please continue to pray for this Movement as we complete our 2012 Weekends. God bless you all!

De Colores,

Terry Cates
